

Learning Objectives :

- To use mature and effective adjectives in sentences.
- To write neatly and legibly in JOINED UP handwriting.

Choose mature and effective adjectives to fill each gap. Copy the sentences in your neatest handwriting into your homework books.

Example :-

Although the _____ and _____ cauldron had been seen at midnight,

Although the secret and sinister cauldron had been seen at midnight, there was no sign of it at dawn.

1. Because the _____ sausages were sizzling in the _____ frying pan,
2. Having poured _____, _____ custard all over my sponge pudding, the malicious cook.....
3. Despite a steady hand, the _____ jelly wobbled alarmingly, as.....
4. After he had covered his _____ toast with _____, _____ jam, my brother
5. Until he saw the _____, _____ chips, he
6. Before she sat down on the _____, _____ sofa,
7. The _____ roar of the crowd echoed around the _____ stadium, as
8. As the _____ evening drew in, a _____ blanket of _____, _____ fog covered the _____ city of Bradford.
9. While _____, _____ leaves fell from the _____ trees in Autumn, _____ children gathered _____, _____ conkers at every turn.
10. Whenever the _____ sound of an _____ thunderstorm could be heard, their dog would