

Where in the world does Shif live?

Look at the clues in the text so far to try and work out where Shif lives.

Look at the language featured throughout the text, what do you think it means? (The chapter Police might help with this)

Research the language you have extracted from the text and begin to piece together where in the world Shif lives.

Now compare the human and physical features of Shif's homeland and England.

Could you build your own desert Biome in a jar?
