

Writing Prompt

L.O.S. To write a persuasive letter

Task: Remembering how lazy the gods in the book were, write them a very persuasive letter, asking them to create your own mythical creature.

Task 1

Create a mind map of all the great things about your creature to persuade the gods.

Task 2

Write down all the persuasive phrases and excellent vocabulary you wish to use in your letter.

Task 3

Set out your letter, using a made-up address and start to write being as persuasive as possible. End your letter by summing up what you expect from the gods.

Task 4

Re-read your piece of work and edit it so it is the best piece it can be. Up level vocabulary where possible. Check you have used a variety of openers.

Task 5

Write up your letter in your neatest joined up handwriting.
